

Ted Ritter, Principal LMI360, Co-Founder of DrawAlert

Ted Ritter has worked and travelled extensively throughout North America, Europe and Asia. He is the Principal of LMI360, a company that solely supports organizations that support the Built Environment, and Co-Founder of DrawAlert, a technology solution for improving results on Construction Projects. He is the current Global Chair of the IFMA Information Technology Community and a Past President of the Phoenix Chapter of IFMA and an active member of the IFMA IoT Task Force.

He is a co-author of “The Facility Manager’s Guide to Information Technology”, author of multiple articles and has contributed to over 100 presentations on Best Practices in regard to the use of FM Technology, Sustainability and Brand Management.

Ted has over 30 years of experience in facility operations and project management. He has supported client projects with a wide range of needs including those of: IBM, American Express, Bechtel, MDS Pharma, Roche, Motorola, Boeing, Mandalay Resort Group/MGM, Multiple Universities, Distributed Retailers, the Department of Energy, State Governments and the Department of Defense.